

Prize $1 Garments

The "White Sale" of 1912 begins the second week here tomorrow with this fact recognized in every home—The Greater Palais Royal is Headquarters for $1.00 garments by virtue of quantities greatest, variety most comprehensive, quality best, styles unusually attractive, finish and fit perfect. This page full of illustrations gives only a few hints. Tomorrow's grand exposition and sale, on first, second, and third floors, will include more than ten thousand garments, and hundreds of different styles at $1.00 for choice.

Best $1 Garments

Every leading maker and importer of the United States is represented in this matchless collection of $1.00 Garments. In the ordinary meaning they are not $1.00 Garments. There's not one that is not superior. Paying the makers and importers more than usual for garments retailed at $1.00, and linking orders for vast quantities, values are offered that are at once recognized vastly superior to the ordinary. While the pictures on this page give a fair idea of the styles, the materials, trimmings and finish have to be seen. Seeing is believing. Have you seen?

The Prize Lingerie at $1.00

But few pictured here—there are 52 styles of combination garments, linking corset cover with skirt or drawers, some joined with beading run with ribbon, others without waist line. No less than 82 styles of gowns, many with slashed sleeves. The skirts, 49 styles, are glove fitting at the hips. Materials are Flaxon, Nainsook, Cambric, and Longcloth. Trimmings of laces and embroideries guaranteed not to fray or tear with repeated washing.

Slips, $1

Fifteen different styles of these Princess Slips, the lines of which assure the classic grace the vogue of today demands.

Materials used are sheer India Linen and Nainsook, with lace and embroidery trimmings in keeping with the filmy fabrics of the garment.

Several styles are trimmed at the bottom, both with and without drop ruffle.

The perfection of fit, linked with superior finish, are added features, making these garments superlatively best at $1.00.

The Prize $1 Blouses and Waists

The illustrations cannot depict the quality of the laces and embroidery trimmings—nor the perfect finish. They can and do prove the styles the latest and best, exact reproductions of the very much more expensive garments. For proof—take elevator to third floor and compare these $1.00 waists with the imported here at various prices to $15.00.

Only $1

With the expense incidental to the production of long corsets and straight lines—the vogue—the problem is to supply reliable models at a low price. This Greater Palais Royal "special" Royal Worcester Corset of 1912 meets every requirement found in the best $5.00 corsets.

Note the length, the front hooks and eyes, the adjusting arrangement, the six garters, all linking graces, comfort and strength as effectually as do the more expensive corsets.
